State of Kansas

Request for Information for Statewide Broadband Fiber Optic Infrastructure

The State Broadband Office is exploring approaches to develop a strategic statewide mid-mile broadband infrastructure through a coordinated installation of multi-duct and fiber optic infrastructure along several designated highway locations. The infrastructure will include duct space, fiber, handholes, and regeneration building space. The locations can include statewide priority and priority freight routes with begin and end points.

The state has numerous needs for an infrastructure like this statewide. These needs include the following:

Research and Education

Kansas is the only state in the region and one of only a few in the US that does not have a dedicated fiber optic Research and Education backbone network.^[1] Most higher education institutions are not just internet customers but contain all the aspects of a small municipality (residential, government, and commercial interests) within their campuses, and thus need the same level and grade of external connectivity that a carrier serving a small town would. Kansas anchor institutions, particularly public higher education institutions (Regents, community colleges, and technical schools), would benefit greatly from a middle mile strategy.

Kansas Department of Transportation (KDOT)

Intelligent Transportation Systems (ITS) is a component of Kansas' 10-year comprehensive transportation plan.^[2] KDOT has a need for fiber construction along primary and secondary freight routes to meet innovation needs outlined in IKE. KDOT has $10M annually earmarked for these needs. A middle-mile grant would allow Kansas to leverage more federal dollars to fund these routes in a few years versus a decade. KDOT is also interested in knowing of possible partnering opportunities that could include the following but not limited to: KDOT participate in the construction by contracting for its share of the installation, maintenance, shared infrastructure, cost share, resource exchange/sharing, etc.

Tribal and Minority Populations

Middle-mile routes could be designed to pass Tribal lands in the eastern part of the state as well as minority communities in the western part of Kansas, bringing greater access and more competitive rates to historically underserved areas.

Residents

More middle-mile fiber in the state would allow non-incumbent providers to enter monopoly markets through an open-access model. New competitive entrants will drive down the cost of broadband to the consumer.

Commerce

Businesses would also benefit from the environment of competition spurred by wholesale rates to middle-mile fiber for ISPs. Additionally, commercial partners will share in the construction of the network and could be given advantageous access to some of the assets for their own needs, while operating the remainder in an open-access environment.

Defense

Serving the NBAF facility in Manhattan, Kansas^[3] with additional fiber routes will add redundancy and resiliency to the biosafety lab. This will add a compelling piece to the application narrative.

Statewide Incident Command/Emergency Management

Currently, over 85% of public safety in the state relies on land mobile radio (LMR) that is only partially connected with fiber. Currently many aspects of communications rely on microwave connections that do not provide the future capacity requirements. Broadband usage by first responders in Kansas has grown exponentially as services are available. Middle-mile fiber expansion in Kansas will greatly enhance our responder's capability as well as speed of response to better protect the citizens of Kansas.

Internet Exchange Points

Kansas is one of 17 states without a carrier neutral internet exchange point (i.e., 1102 Grand). Carrier neutral exchange points are sought to: enhance resilience associated with the current exchange route limitations; reduce data transport distances and costs; and improve internet traffic flows by improving access to content. Exchange points can be included in an EMMBI application.

To develop a fiber optic infrastructure to meet the states long-term broadband needs, the state intends to allow nonexclusive use of its right-of-way along highway corridors except for interstates to allow companies in the broadband business to install fiber optic cable along the right-of-way under a permitting relationship with KDOT. Possible partnering opportunities could include the following but not limited to construction of a portion of the mid-mile program, ownership, maintenance, operations, etc.

The State Broadband Office is requesting interested companies to provide input for the grant development, policies and for ideas of what the partnering should look like statewide. If you have any questions or interest in partnering with the State of Kansas, along the designated routes listed below, for fiber optic infrastructure please contact KDC_Broadband@ks.gov before the close of business on August 18, 2022.

All removed materials remain property of the CVR, to be stockpiled as directed by a railroad representative

Non-Project Areas

CVR has secured access to the project through the railroad right of way. Other access may be obtained by the contractor if he so chooses. All areas (public, private and railroad right of way) that are used for access to the project, including parts of the railroad right of way which have no proposed work, shall be maintained and/or remediated, incidental to the project, by the contractor to the satisfaction of the property owner if any damage to these areas occurs.

(c) Each public warehouseman shall enter all of the public warehouseman’s grain bank grain into the public warehouseman’s records as a liability in the same manner as that for other storage grain for which the public warehouseman is liable.

(d) Grain bank grain shall be accounted for on an individual depositor basis. The records for grain bank grain shall be kept on a pound, bushel, or hundredweight basis for the grain deposited. (Authorized by K.S.A. 34-102 and 34-227b; implementing K.S.A. 34-227b; effective March 8, 2002; amended Aug. 26, 2022.)

(c) Each public warehouseman for whom a special or requested examination of a warehouse is performed shall pay the following fees:

(1) $50.00 per hour for each examiner who is on site for the examination, with a required minimum charge for four hours;

(2) subsistence expenses for each examiner who is on site for the examination; and

(3) mileage expenses for each examiner who is on site for the examination, which shall be charged per mile driven at the rate per mile determined by the secretary of the department of administration pursuant to K.S.A. 75-4607, and amendments thereto.

(d) In addition to the applicable license fee specified in subsection (a), each public warehouseman shall pay an annual fee of $500.00 for each functional unit that the public warehouseman’s licensed public warehouse has. However, each public warehouseman shall be entitled to a waiver of the functional unit fee for one functional unit.

(e) Each public warehouseman shall pay the hourly rate, subsistence, and mileage expenses specified in subsection (c) for examinations necessitated by changes in the storage capacity of a licensed public warehouse, including the addition of conditional storage space, or by the need to confirm that a warehouse is empty. All conditional or empty storage space of each licensed public warehouse shall be subject to all other applicable fees and requirements specified in the act. (Authorized by K.S.A. 34-102; implementing K.S.A. 34-102 and 34-228; effective March 8, 2002; amended, T-4-12-16-03, Jan. 1, 2004; amended Feb. 6, 2004; amended Aug. 26, 2022.)

4-25-19. Licensed storage, conditional storage, and emergency storage.

(a) A public warehouseman shall not utilize any licensed public warehouse for grain storage until the secretary has measured the empty storage volume of the licensed public warehouse and determined that the licensed public warehouse is adequate to store grain in a manner that will maintain the condition of the grain.

(b) Any public warehouseman who takes possession of a grain storage facility, including as the result of an acquisition or merger, may utilize the facility for grain storage upon assuming ownership of the facility and obtaining all required licensure if the secretary has previously measured the empty storage volume of the facility and determined that the facility is adequate to store grain in a manner that will maintain the condition of the grain.

(c) The determination of whether each grain storage facility is adequate to store grain in a manner that will maintain the condition of the grain shall be made by the secretary and shall be based on the following:

(1) Whether the facility is constructed of base material that is adequate to maintain the condition of stored grain, including concrete, asphalt, rock, or other material approved by the secretary;

(2) whether the facility uses rigid, self-supporting side-walls that provide adequate separation of different types of grain;

(3) whether the facility provides aeration adequate to maintain the condition of stored grain;

(4) whether the facility provides cover adequate to maintain the condition of stored grain, including a tarp or other material approved by the secretary; and

(5) whether the licensed grain storage facility is adequate to store grain in a manner that will maintain the condition of the grain, according to any other criteria related to the physical structure of the grain storage facility that the secretary deems relevant.

(d) Before storing grain in conditional storage space or offering emergency storage space for public use, each public warehouseman shall apply to be permitted to do so, on a form provided by the secretary, and shall obtain the secretary's written approval of the application. Each application for the use of conditional storage or emergency storage space shall include, at a minimum, the following:

(1) The name of the licensee;

(2) the type of grain that will be stored in conditional storage or emergency storage; and

(3) the quantity of grain that will be stored in conditional storage or emergency storage.

(e) Each public warehouseman shall keep and maintain all grain stored in conditional storage or emergency storage in good condition and shall maintain a weighed figure reflecting the volume in bushels of all grain stored in conditional storage or emergency storage, which shall be provided to the secretary upon request. All grain stored in conditional storage or emergency storage for which a weighed figure is not available shall be accounted for according to the total bushel amount calculated by the secretary during examination of the public warehouse. Grain that the secretary determines to be in unacceptable condition shall not be accounted for during examination.

(f) Each public warehouseman shall move all corn, soybeans, edible beans, grain sorghum, and other grains for which federal grain standards have been established from conditional storage into licensed storage no later than July 1 of the year following the year in which those grains were placed into conditional storage.

(g) Each public warehouseman shall move all corn, soybeans, edible beans, grain sorghum, and other grains for which federal grain standards have been established from emergency storage into licensed storage no later than March 31 of the year following the year in which those grains were placed into emergency storage.

(h) Each public warehouseman shall move all wheat, barley, oats, and rye from conditional storage into licensed storage no later than December 31 of the year in which those grains were placed into conditional storage.

(i) Each public warehouseman shall move all wheat, barley, oats, and rye from emergency storage into licensed storage no later than August 31 of the year in which those grains were placed into emergency storage.

(j) Grain that is not moved into licensed storage by the applicable deadline specified in this regulation shall not be included in a daily position report, shall not be used to cover a warehouse receipt or any other liability, and shall not be included in any examination, unless the secretary grants a written extension of the deadline. Each application for an extension pursuant to this subsection shall be submitted in writing on a form provided by the secretary. An extension shall not provide more than 30 additional days for a public warehouseman to complete collection and storage of the grain as specified in this subsection.

Each public warehouseman shall be allowed to apply for only two extensions after the expiration of the applicable deadline specified in this subsection. Grain that is not in licensed storage space by the deadline specified in the most recently issued extension shall not be included in a daily position report, shall not be used to cover a warehouse receipt or any other liability, and shall not be included in any examination.

(k) Each public warehouseman who utilizes conditional storage or emergency storage space shall inform the secretary in writing when all of the grain is moved back into licensed storage.

(l) Each public warehouseman shall maintain a copy of the written request for emergency storage or conditional storage, the approval for emergency storage or conditional storage furnished by the secretary, the written request for an extension for emergency storage or conditional storage, the approval of an extension for emergency storage or conditional storage furnished by the secretary, and the written notice that all of the grain has been collected. The public warehouseman shall furnish a copy of these documents to the secretary upon request.

(m) The use of conditional storage or emergency storage shall not be permitted if the additional storage space requested will cause the licensed public warehouse to be noncompliant with any applicable provision of K.S.A. 34-228(c)(1) or K.S.A. 34-229, and amendments thereto.

(n) Conditional storage or emergency storage shall not be added to the licensed storage of a licensed public warehouse unless the request to add conditional storage or emergency storage to the warehouse's existing licensed storage is accompanied by the license amendment fee specified in K.A.R. 4-25-16.

(o) Emergency storage shall not be allowed for soybeans or dry edible beans.

(p) Each public warehouseman shall be permitted to store only one type of grain in each licensed storage, conditional storage, or emergency storage bin.

(q) Each portion of the total bulk grain capacity of a licensed public warehouse that is an integral part of any unit of the licensed public warehouse and is equipped for the handling and warehousing of grain shall be included in the licensed capacity of the licensed public warehouse. However, any part of a licensed public warehouse's licensed capacity may be reserved and designated "not for public use" if the public warehouseman submits an application to the secretary requesting permission to reserve the area and designate it "not for public use" and receives the secretary's approval.

Any public warehouseman may be required by the secretary to utilize a seal, lock, or other method of segregating an area designated "not for public use" from the public use areas of the licensed public warehouse. (Authorized by K.S.A. 34-102 and K.S.A. 34-228; implementing K.S.A. 34-102, 34-228, and 34-229; effective Aug. 26, 2022.)

4-25-20. Undermeasurements and overmeasurements of stored grain. (a) Each public warehouseman who is determined by the secretary during an examination to be in possession of less grain than is reflected on the licensed public warehouse's daily position report by an amount equal to or greater than either 500 bushels or 1.5 percent of the licensed public warehouse's total grain inventory, separated by commodity, shall adjust the daily position report so that the report reflects the volume of grain actually stored in the licensed public warehouse, by commodity. A public warehouseman who is determined by the secretary during an examination to be in possession of more grain than is reflected on the daily position report shall not be required to adjust the public warehouse's daily position report.

(b) For purposes of this regulation, the volume of grain stored in each licensed public warehouse shall be the volume of grain stored in the licensed public warehouse on the date and at the time that the licensed public warehouse's daily position report is provided to the secretary at the beginning of an examination. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 34-102; effective Aug. 26, 2022.)

4-25-21. Unpaid grain contracts. (a) Each written unpaid grain contract shall be signed by an authorized representative of the licensed public warehouse and by an authorized representative of the seller of the grain within 30 days of entering into the unpaid grain contract. Each verbal unpaid grain contract shall be evidenced by a written confirmation of the unpaid grain contract, which shall be signed by an authorized representative of the licensed public warehouse and by an authorized representative of the seller of the grain within 30 days of entering into the unpaid grain contract.

The signatures required by this subsection may be obtained by electronic or other similar means sufficient to verify that both signing parties have approved the contract or confirmation. Each unpaid grain contract shall comply with K.S.A. 34-2,111, and amendments thereto.

(b) Each public warehouseman shall maintain all unpaid grain contracts in a manner that allows the secretary to easily access and verify the contracts during inspection or examination. Unpaid grain contracts that have been fulfilled shall be stored separately from unfulfilled unpaid grain contracts or shall be clearly marked to indicate that the contracts have been fulfilled. (Authorized by K.S.A. 34-102; implementing K.S.A. 34-102 and K.S.A. 34-2,111; effective Aug. 26, 2022.)

4-25-22. Safety of facilities. (a) Each public warehouseman shall ensure that the public warehouseman's licensed public warehouse can be safely examined and inspected.

(b) The performance of any examination or inspection of a public warehouse may be refused by the secretary if the secretary determines that the public warehouse is in such a condition that it cannot be adequately examined or inspected or that it presents a danger to the health and safety of examination or inspection personnel. A functional unit that is not examined due to a determination by the secretary pursuant to this regulation shall not be included on a daily position report, shall not be included in an examination, and shall not be used to cover a warehouse receipt or any other liability. (Authorized by and implementing K.S.A. 34-102; effective Aug. 26, 2022.)

4-25-23. Disciplinary actions. (a) Each public warehouseman who is determined by the secretary during an examination to have failed to comply with any provision of the act shall be issued a report of conditions detailing each violation.

(b) Each public warehouseman who is issued a report of conditions shall, within 15 days of the issuance of the report of conditions, provide a report to the secretary detailing how the public warehouseman has remedied or plans to remedy each violation that was cited in the report of conditions.

(c) Each public warehouseman who fails to respond to a report of conditions within 15 days of its issuance as specified in subsection (b) shall be subject to further disciplinary action. The further disciplinary action may include the temporary suspension or revocation of the public warehouseman's license or any other action deemed appropriate by the secretary.

(d) Nothing in this regulation shall limit the power of the secretary to take disciplinary action against any public warehouseman to the fullest extent pursuant to the act if the secretary determines that doing so is necessary or is in the public interest. (Authorized by K.S.A. 34-102; implementing K.S.A. 34-102 and K.S.A. 34-230; effective Aug. 26, 2022.)
